CARS ARE PLACED FOR MOTOR MINE COAL OPERATORS

All Roads But Baltimore & Ohio Obey Ruling of Commerce Commission.

SOME CAUGHT UNAWARES

Assumption of Service by Pennsylvania Is on Orders Placed Weeks Ago and Without Notice and Many Fail to Load Within 24-hour Time Period.

With the exception of the Baltimore & Ohio, the railroads in the Connellsville region have begun the placement of open-top cars for motor mine and wagon mine operators, pursuant to the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission, the latter yesterday issuing an order bearing on intrastate distribution of equipment in conformity with the order of September 16 of the national commission.

The Baltimore & Ohio, it is said, has interpreted the order of the commerce commission to mean that the so-called wagon and motor mine operators are not to have cars during the shortage. Representations have been made to the company by M. Lee Plus, secretary of the Tri-County Motor Mines Association, setting forth that other companies have begun the placement of cars, and in event of an unfavorable reply complaint will be filed in Washington against the Baltimore & Ohio.

"We have no instructions to place open-top cars," it was said at the local B. & O. office.

All doubt as to the meaning of the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission of September 16, over which there was some dispute, is removed by the receipt of the following message by Secretary T. J. of the Tri-County Motor Mines Association in answer to a telegram to the commission concerning the refusal of the Baltimore & Ohio to permit the loading of box cars placed on a public siding at Point Marion:

"Refusal to supply box cars for the use of the Tri-County Motor Mines Association is in violation of the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The commission has now issued an order granting the use of open-top equipment to wagon mine operators for loading within 24 hours."

Placement of cars by the Pennsylvania this week caught many local wagon mine operators unawares, and a number of them failed to load within the 24-hour loading condition, it is said. This called forth vigorous protests when they learned they were to be cut off for failure to load within the specified time. The last cars previously placed were on July 27 and the continued inactivity has resulted in many being closed down, the employees drifting to other places. Placement of cars was made without notice on orders for cars that had been on the books of the company and consequently the operators found it impossible in some cases to even begin loading. Whether this means a shipment of them will be contemplated by the Interstate Commerce Commission is something they would like to know. Further action on the part of the Tri-County organization is said to be likely to follow should the company decline to provide service for failure to load cars that had been placed.

There are said to be 28 open-top loaders in Connellsville and the immediate vicinity. A considerable number were prepared to meet the 24-hour condition but many were not.

BODY OF SCOTTTDALE'S FIRST VICTIM OF WAR ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

Thomas A. Llewellyn Was Among Those Drowned in Sinking of Transport Tuscunia.

SOME CAUGHT UNAWARES

Assumption of Service by Pennsylvania Is on Orders Placed Weeks Ago and Without Notice and Many Fail to Load Within 24-hour Time Period.

SCOTTTDALE, Oct. 8.—The body of Thomas A. Llewellyn, first Scottdale boy to meet death during the World War, has arrived in New York, according to a telegram received by his father, J. L. Llewellyn. The father was asked to wire instructions as to disposition of the body. This has been done and it is expected to arrive here in a few days.

Thomas Llewellyn was drowned following the sinking of the transport Tuscunia by a German submarine on February 8, 1918, off the coast of Ireland. His body was washed ashore and temporarily buried along with the other victims of the disaster.

The Scottdale post of the American Legion has been named in honor of Llewellyn. The post will pay full honor to the memory of the young man.

JERSEY CITIES ARE SHAKEN BY TERRIFIC BLAST

Great Excitement Follows Explosion, Location of Which Is Mystery.

POLICE THINK IT IN QUARRY

By Associated Press.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 8.—Newark, Jersey City and surrounding towns were startled shortly after 10 o'clock today by a mysterious explosion.

Police and county authorities immediately began an investigation but have been unable to learn the location of the blast.

Several loud reports caused considerable excitement. Many persons believed that one of the numerous powder plants in the eastern section of the state had blown up. Canvass of all big powder manufacturing companies and of the government arsenal at Camden brought no information.

Belief that the reports had come from big guns at the Fort Hancock Proving grounds was dispelled when the military authorities announced there had been no firing this morning.

They said, however, it was planned to test some 15 inch guns this afternoon which probably would make unusually loud reports.

After several hours of investigation police and county officials expressed the opinion that the loud report came from a quarry blast somewhere in this vicinity.

FACTS ABOUT RED CROSS BUREAU OF PUBLIC NURSING

TO THE REPUBLICAN WOMEN VOTERS OF FAYETTE COUNTY

Do not be misled by specious arguments to induce you to split your ticket this fall. Every subterfuge is being used and will be used to persuade you that you should show your independence by splitting your ticket and voting for certain Democratic candidates.

Do not be deceived. A split ticket always helps the minority party, which is the Democratic party. You will not find a Democrat urging Democratic women to be non-partisan. These arguments are always reserved by them for Republican women, to mislead them. There is no such thing as a non-partisan split ticket. You are either for or against the Republican party and Republican principles.

You are either for Harding or you are against him, and if you are for him you can't afford to tie his hands by giving him a Democratic Congress. A vote for a Democratic Congressman is a vote against the great principles for which the Republicans are fighting this fall.

The Republican stand for a free America, free from European entanglement, free from being required to send your sons across the water to help European nations retain their plunder from the World War.

They stand for a manly, independent America in its foreign policy, and for the protection of American homes, American ideals and American business in its home policy.

When you hear any one talking about being on-partisan set him or her down as being a Democrat and be on your guard.

FIFTY NEW SEATS IN CONGRESS; WEST, SOUTH WILL GAIN

New House Apportionment Will Follow Announcement of Census Increase.

LARGE BODY IS OPPOSED

Congressional Leaders Look Upon Many Additions to Present Membership as Making It Unworkably Large.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Examination of the final census figures of the country, which place the total population of the continental United States at 105,685,108, indicates that the West and the South proportionately will gain more in a political way than the East or Middle West through increased membership in the House of Representatives, more votes in the electoral college and in larger delegations to the national political conventions.

This result will obtain whatever house of apportionment is adopted by Congress next winter fixing the size of the next House, which in turn is reflected in the electoral college and the conventions of the big political parties.

As a result of the increase of 13,710,842 in population during the past 10 years 50 new seats must be added to the House to prevent any state from losing any part of its present representation. Should the present membership of 435 be left unchanged by increasing the basis of apportionment, there will have to be a transfer of 33 seats now held by 12 states to nine other states.

For the past half century the precedent has been to increase the size of the House so as to prevent loss of existing representation by a state. As a result the House has grown from 243 to 435 members, with only three states, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont losing one member each in the last 50 years.

If this precedent is followed this year five additional representatives must be given to California, four each to New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan, three to Illinois and Texas, two to Massachusetts, New Jersey and North Carolina, and one each to Alabama, Arizona, Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, Montana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Virginia, Arkansas and Minnesota.

While the present basis of apportionment is 218,577 inhabitants or its major fraction to the Congressional district, Congress can now increase the basis to 219,427, without causing any loss. The advance beyond the latter figure will mean that Maine would lose one seat with the net result of 48 new seats in Congress.

Congressional leaders are strongly opposed to any large increase in the House as they regard the present membership of 435 as too bulky. When the House-Census committee begins consideration of the problem efforts will be made to hold down the increase but pressure for the increase is expected to come from the states which would benefit by the increase.

INDIANS TREATED AS CONQUERING HEROES ON THEIR RETURN

Confident of Winning Series, Despite Two Defeats; Speaker Hit Home Run, Zack Wheat Declares.

ENROUTE WITH THE DODGERS

Oct. 8.—It was a happy and confident lot of Brooklyn Dodgers hitting in the westward today to attack the Cleveland Indians on their own reservation for world series games. There was not a man on the whole Brooklyn club who did not firmly believe that the series was as good as won.

Manager Robinson would not say who will pitch for Brooklyn Saturday but the players think Pfeiffer will be the man. "We will beat Cleveland the next time he starts," said Captain Zack Wheat. Wheat says this Speaker should have been credited with a home run yesterday instead of a two-base hit.

"I never touched that drive of Speaker's on which the official scorer credited the batter with a two-base hit and gave me an error," said Wheat. "The ball took a nasty hop just as I was about to catch it and I never got my hands on it."

CLEVELAND, Oct. 8.—Smiling and full of confidence, despite their two defeats, the Cleveland Indians arrived today from Brooklyn to engage the Dodgers in the fourth game of the world series here tomorrow. Conquerors here never received a more noisy reception than the players. Streets leading to the Union station were lined with cheering enthusiasts who apparently forgot the two defeats handed the Indians at Brooklyn.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—Germany has reiterated her request for the naming of a definite sum of reparations and a new proposal has been brought from Berlin to Paris this week by the French ambassador to Germany. The correspondent learned this today in German official circles where it also was pointed out that the ambassador had emphasized the necessity of immediately fixing the total indemnity to prevent the economic and political collapse of Germany.

The French government, it is now believed in German circles, is considering the latest request and a decision with respect to the right of a definite sum of reparations will be made in the near future.

HUNDREDS OF GUESTS AT BISHOP POST HOUSE-WARMING

Crush Such at Quarters in Soisson Theatre Building Many Turned Away.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR ALL

Hundreds of members former service men, citizens and relatives of members attended the house-warming of the Bishop Post No. 301, The American Legion last night. The capacity of the post's rooms in the Soisson theatre building was so greatly taxed that many were turned away during the early part of the evening.

The event, arranged by a house committee appointed a week ago, was a thorough success and brought the Legion further to the front in the public's eyes.

The evening program opened with an introductory speech by Thomas W. Scott, who presented Mayor Dugan. The city's executive made the principal address, recalling the work of the legions of the American Army during the world war. He also said that the legion was beginning to realize the strength of the legion. The mayor paid a tribute to the women and said he would concede no one first over those in Connellsville.

Mr. Scott made an interesting report of the occurrences at the convention held in Cleveland. The most interesting part was that concerning the adoption of the resolution asking congressional action to have November 11, Armistice day, proclaimed a national holiday. This resolution was favored by the Bishop post delegates.

The American Legion has organized a "playground" in the form of a society inside the Legion. It is called "La Societe des 40 Bonhommes & 8 Chevaliers."

The post last night wrote up an application for a charter. Only one charter may be in a county and the Milton L. Bishop post members intend to have the Fayette one have. The application came from Pittsburgh. The membership in this organization is growing rapidly.

The orchestra furnished by John Brown for last night's entertainment received a full quota of applause. Snappy popular airs were played throughout the evening.

Everything was in readiness for the house-warming party having looked after the smallest details. A light lunch was served.

It was announced at the close of the program that only 100 service men had made application for the Victory Medal. There are hundreds more in this section eligible for them and those who desire to secure them without any difficulty should file application at the post room before Saturday night as the request for them will be sent on to Philadelphia that night.

Thursday night of next week will mark the first meeting of the post in its new quarters. A smoker will be held in connection with the gathering.

POPULATION OF UNITED STATES 105 MILLIONS

Figures for 1920 Census Do Not Include Colonial Possessions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The Census Bureau Thursday afternoon announced the population of the United States as 105,685,108. This is the 1920 population of the continental United States, and does not include the colonial possessions.

The country increased 13,710,842 persons from 1910, a percentage gain of 14.9. This gain was only about two-thirds of the percentage increase in the previous decade between 1900 and 1910, the United States increasing from 75,924,575 persons to 91,972,389, a percentage increase of 21.0 and a numerical increase of 15,977,691.

The fact that the United States has gained but 13,700,000 between 1910 and 1920 as compared with a gain of nearly 16,000,000 between 1900 and 1910 is attributed by Stuart L. Rogers, director of the census, largely to the almost complete cessation of immigration during the war years, the influence epidemic, and to some extent, to the casualties of the war.

At the same time the total population of the country was announced by the census bureau of the various states and their comparative rank as shown by the size of population were made public. New York leads the list with 10,384,144 persons. Next comes Pennsylvania with 8,720,150, Illinois with 6,485,998 and Ohio with 5,769,368. The other states are below this figure.

There are four states with a population of more than 2,000,000, one—Texas, with a population of more than 4,000,000, five in the 2,000,000 class, 11 with 2,000,000 or more, 10 with 1,000,000 or more persons each, and 18, including the District of Columbia, with populations below 1,000,000. Only one state, Nevada, has less than 100,000 people in her borders.

The total for all the possessions of the United States, including Alaska, Panama canal zone, Virgin Islands, Guam, Samoa and the Philippine Islands, with military and naval personnel, is estimated at 12,250,000.

TALE, NERVOUS WOMEN
Told How to Acquire Strength and Energy.

Our local druggists, Laughrey Drug Co., say that since Vinol was first introduced here some years ago it has made a great many friends among our women, because it is such an unusual remedy. It is the first cod liver medicine ever to have been made without the oil and nauseating grease, and the iron employed in its composition is an improvement over old medicinal tinctures. Many women here who were once pale and anemic and always tired, are now robust and strong, because Vinol certainly and quickly creates red blood and makes one's daily food produce the necessary nourishment for good health.—Advertiser.

PROTESTING NON-PARTISANSHIP

THEY ARE NOT PROTESTING

There is no disposition upon the part of any one to question the sincerity of the persons comprising the League of Women Voters in their efforts to instruct the women of the county in the art of voting, but there are certain matters in connection therewith which justify criticism of the methods employed.

Presumed and widely proclaimed to be absolutely non-partisan in plan and purpose the activities of the league in Fayette do not precisely square with this claim. The officers of the league and the speakers touring the county under its auspices are all of Democratic affiliations, and the women of the opposite political faith
have been given any place of prominence in the deliberations or campaigning of the organization.

The meetings in the several sections of the county have not aroused any marked degree of enthusiasm among the women voters, but have been directly disappointing in many places.
Connellsville included. The speakers charged with the duty of explaining how to vote have apparently been most concerned in making clear how a ticket can be split to include the vote for one or more candidates of the opposite party, employing in such cases
the names of Democratic candidates
as the beneficiaries of the "split."

At the same time care is taken to expound the virtues of the Wilsonian League of Nations covenant and to explain that although the league issue will not appear on the ballot it can be voted for by supporting certain candidates.

Similarly with prohibition. Notwithstanding Mrs. A. C. Hagan, president of the county league, has declared this to be "a dead issue" she has not hesi-tated to point out the necessity of casting votes for candidates whom she terms "prohibition Democrats."

Mrs. O. S. Mullin, city chairman of the league, at a recent meeting in Uniontown was even more pointed in her "suggestion" in this respect. Having been assigned to the duty of interviewing Mr. Sterling and Mr. Kendall, to ascertain their attitude upon "the continuance of the 18th Amendment," which she declares is "the most important thing we will resist upon,"
she does not wait until both candidates have had the opportunity to favor or her with answer to her question, then report at the same time what both have said, but taking the first opportunity offered, she announces that she "put Mr. Sterling to the test, and that the answer made a distinct impression upon me."

Without quoting specifically what
Mr. Sterling said Mrs. Mullin subjects herself to the imputation of the partianship she has denied when adding that she was "proud to say Mr. Sterling was marked down as a 'yes' on that important matter."

It is not surprising that Mrs. Mullin pressing a willingness "to present Mr.
Kendall's attitude on this question as soon as it is possible to be placed in a position of interviewing him," in a sense of fairness to the candidates,
and a desire to show that the purpose of the league is entirely non-partisan, and that it is not a "Democratic League," would have suggested the propriety of placing the results of her inquiry of opposing candidates before voters at once and the same time, and without prejudice in cordiality of recommendations, point of timeliness or otherwise.

An editorial in the Brownsville Telegraph describes an "anecdote" of non-partisan advice to the women voters of the Brownsville district, which created a feeling of uneasiness and disappointment. Concerning instruction to the women of the district, the Telegraph says nothing was done "other than to advance Democratic doctrines." One speaker "devoted the greater part of her time to missionary work in behalf of the League of Nations, as it is," and as reservations should be made against American policy.

If other proof were necessary to show the partial character of the efforts being made to instruct the voters of Fayette county, it has been supplied by the chief organ of the Barrelet leaders which has presented the League of Women Voters as a "Democratic League" and its meetings as designed to "advocate no candidate, but to secure a definite discussion in a non-partisan way, of the campaign issues and of the candidates."

There have been many instances in political history when the much proclaimed non-partisanship of a campaign has been a mere disguise for the promotion of a particular party.

The Legion and Louis F. Post

By Sam and New York Herald.

A great many persons who are not familiar with the personnel of the Wilson Administration may be wondering how it came to pass that Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of the American Legion, should be appointed to the position of assistant secretary of the Department of Justice, calling for the removal of Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor.

2-Why Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, has refused to permit the American Legion to establish a bureau of information and Americanization for immigrants at Ellis Island.

On April 12, 1936, Representative Albert Johnston made the charge in the House that Post had freed on bail
a dangerous convicted anarchist over the protests of the Department of Justice and the Commissioner of Immigration. Mr. Johnston's charges were later affirmed by Attorney General A.
Mitchell Palmer. In May Mr. Post was summoned before the rules committee of the House and questioned concerning the matter. He had cancelled warrants for the deportation of undesirable aliens. He admitted that, exclusive of the crowd deported with Berkman and Emma Goldman in the Bufford, only 22 aliens had been deported to six months. He said:

"I have ordered the cancellation of the deportation warrants of sixty-one Russian workers and 1,232 members of the Communist and Communist Labor Parties."

Mr. Post also admitted that he had cancelled deportation warrants in the absence of the solicitor of the Labor Department.

These instances, we think, will indicate why the American Legion demanded Post's removal and will also indicate why Post does not want the Legion to Americanize the new immigrant.

But we hope and believe that Post
will be out of office in five months.
The members of the American Legion,
each as an individual voter, will have a good deal to say about that.

THE CHIP ON YOUR SHOULDER.
You'll learn when you're older, that
chip on your shoulder
Which you dare other boys to upset.
And stand up and fight for and struggle and unite, and Have caused you much shame and regret.
When Time, life's adviser, has made
you much wiser.
You won't be so quick with the blow.
You won't be so willing to fight for a whiffing.
And change a good friend to a foe.
You won't be a kicker for trifles,
and bluster.
And quarrel for nothing at all.
You'll grow to be kinder, more thoughtful and blinder.
To faults which are petty and
small.
You won't take the trouble your eye has to doubt, but When some one your pride may offend.
When with rage now you bluster
you'll smile or you'll whistle.
And keep the good will of a friend.
You'll learn when you're older, that
chip on your shoulder
Which you frequently shamed you and often defamed you
And left you a record that's marred.
When you've grown calm and steady,
you won't be so ready
To fight for a difference that's
small.
For you'll know, when you're older,
that chip on your shoulder
Is only a chip after all.

UNEARDED ON FARM IN WESTMORELAND CO.

Remains of Carnegie Museum's Curator
Believed to Be That of Mound
Builder Found.

Found in the Courthouse.

GREENSBURG, Oct. 7.—Dr. W. J. Holland, curator of the Carnegie museum in Pittsburgh, and his assistant, Dr. Peterson, a few days ago opened up the mound of the ancient race that inhabited this section and secured the skeleton of a man, who, when in the flesh, was between six and nine feet high. This mound, which was originally about 100 feet long and more than 12 feet high, has been somewhat worn down by time. It is in the J. B. Sechrist farm in South Huntington township. This farm has been in the Sechrist name for more than a century.

The most interesting feature in the recent excavation was the mummified torso of a human body, which the Carnegie scientists expected to find. It was found at least 400 years ago. Portions of the bones dug up and the bones in the legs. Prof. Peterson declares, were those of a person between eight and nine feet. The skeleton, which this skeleton was the frame-work of a person of a prehistoric race that inhabited this section before the American Indians claimed this territory.

The torso and the portions of the big skeleton were shipped to the Carnegie museum. Doctor Holland and Peterson supervised the excavations on the Sechrist mound with the greatest of care. The curators believe the only mummy skeleton they secured belonged to the Mound Builder class. The torso and the skeleton will be placed in the Carnegie museum.

SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES AND DARKENS HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So
Naturally That Nobody
Can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful. This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks (gent, wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Adv.

CABBAGE AND SAUSAGES WOMAN'S DIET

"I have doctored with the best doctors in the United States. Some said eat little and some another was sitting me and all wanted to cut me open, but Mary's Wonderful Remedy saved me, so now I eat cabbage, sausage and anything I want to. Nothing hurts me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and silences the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. A. A. Clarke and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

DECREASE

In Freight Accumulations and Unfilled Car Orders to Sept. 17.

The accumulations of freight in September 17 totaled only 47,483 cars, and from 30,900 to 40,000 is not far from normal. On April 15, when the switchmen's strike was on, the accumulation of freight remaining unremoved by the carriers was more than 200,000 cars.

Unfilled car orders on September 17 amounted to only 164,790 in the United States and 110,750, including Canada. These figures indicate a decrease of 40,000 in unfilled car orders.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrh, Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get one ounce of "Parmin" (double strength), and add to it one-fourth pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrh, Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

STRIKE EPIDEMIC SEEMS TO HAVE COME TO A DEFINITE END

Reduction in Price of Commodities
Tends to Slow Down the Drive
For Wage Increases.

Organized labor is beginning to moderate its drive for repeated wage increases, Edward F. Cunningham, of the conciliation bureau of the Labor Department said, "probably as a direct result of the country-wide price cutting wave."

"The strike epidemic seems completely ended," said Mr. Cunningham. "This should speed up production all over the country," he suggested.

"Not more than 40,000 men now are involved in labor disagreements throughout the entire United States," Mr. Cunningham said. "Only two cases were referred to the department this week for adjustment. In short time ago we got from 17 to 20 new cases each week. More men are working regularly now than at any time since the armistice."

"Throughout the whole country I know of only one strike of any magnitude, the walkout of soft coal miners in Kentucky. There are indications that this will be adjusted promptly. The rank and file of organized labor seems willing to await the results of the price-cutting wave. If it should prove a permanent reduction in prices the result, of course, would be equivalent to higher wages. The worker would be able to buy more commodities, and more varieties. Labor seems to be suspending action pending the result. If the slackening up of the strike spirit is a true indication."

A WOMAN'S SOUL BARED

Mrs. Asquith, Wife of Premier British Premier, Tells Tales Out of School.

When William Watson, the famed poet, wrote "The Young Man With the Serpent's Tongue," it was Margaret Tansant Asquith he wrote about. As wife of the then Prime Minister of Great Britain, Mrs. Asquith acquired a knowledge of men and things that was denied to other women. Her "petticoat government" forced a crisis in the "British" and she was the "power behind the throne" in many other instances.

Now Mrs. Asquith has arrived at the conclusion that she is and has been a much-misunderstood woman. Happily, during her entire public career (and it was a public career) she kept a diary. Recently she concluded to give the contents of that diary to the public. England already has read what she had to say. Pittsburg is to be next. The Pittsburg Dispatch has arranged for the entire diary and, beginning next Sunday, October 10, there will appear for 14 consecutive weeks a liberal installment of all the things Mrs. Asquith wrote.

Contained in this diary are matters of state, love, intrigue and common politics. The writer, whose pen might best be described as "thriller" spares no one. She knew well Gladstone, Edward VII, Roseberry, Balfour, Randolph Churchill, Kitchener, Lord Roberts and a host of other world famous figures. And she knows whereof she writes.

No matter whether you are of British origin or not, you will be interested. This being the case, it is best to "play safe" and order your copy of next Sunday's Dispatch in advance.—Adv.

BLUE SUIT

The youthfulness and becoming quality of navy blue makes the color a favorite. In this suit of velours a touch of embroidery done in black silk relieves any severity of line. Soft mole makes the collar that fastens snugly under the chin. A narrow tie girle makes the waist-line. Like a good many suits of the fall and winter season, the coat is cut almost to knee-length.

Senreco

The double-service tooth paste, keeps teeth clean AND GUMS HEALTHY.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health: more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser: acts directly on the mucous film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggist or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling it gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste.

THE GREAT SHADOW

By A. CONAN DOYLE

Author of The Adventure of Sherlock Holmes

Copyright by A. Conan Doyle

I could not think him for the present, which was of more value than anything I had ever owned in my life. I am off to the upper mill to hunt the lamb. "Maybe you could care to come up with me and see something of the country?"

He hesitated for a moment, and then he shook his head. "I have some letters," he said, which I thought to write as soon as possible. I think that I will stay at this morning and get them written."

All forenoon I was wandering over the links, and when I got back he looked as though he had been born and bred in the staidness. He sat in the wooden-famed single chair, with his black cat on his knee. His arms were out, and he held a skein of yarn from hand to hand, which my mother was busy telling into a ball. "Billie was sitting near, and I could see by her eyes that she had been crying."

"Hello, Billie," said I, "what's the matter?" "Ah! mademoiselle, like all good and true women, has a soft heart," said he, "I didn't think it would have gone her, or I should have been at her. I have been talking of the suffering of some troops of which I knew something, when they were crossing the Gudarum mountains in the winter of 1908. At that time it was very bad, for they were fine men, and fine horses, it is strange to see men thrown by the wind over the precipices, but the ground was so slippery, and there was nothing to which they could hold. So companies all linked arms, and they did better in that fashion; but one artilleryman's horse came over a hill, for he had had the frost bite for three days."

I stood staring, with my mouth open. "And the old grenadiers, too, who were not so active as they used to be, they could not keep up; and yet if they lingered the peasants would catch them and crucify them to the barn doors with their feet up and a bro under their hands, which was a pity for these fine old soldiers. So when they could go no farther it was interesting to see what they would do. For they would sit down and try their prayers, sitting on an old saddle, or their knapsacks, maybe, and then take off their boots and stockings, and lean their chin on the barrel of their musket. Then they would put their toes in the trigger, and point it at all the war, and there was no more marching for those fine old grenadiers. Oh! it was very rough work up there on the Gudarum mountains."

"And what army was this?" I asked. "Oh! I have served in so many armies that I mix them up sometimes. Yes, I have seen much of war. But there is a man out yonder. Maybe he is the one who your father said would carry my letters to the post."

"Yes, he is farmer Whitehead's man. Shall I give them to him?"

"Well, he would be more careful of them if he had them from your hands." So I took them from his pocket, and gave them over to me. I hurried out with them, and as I did so my eyes fell upon the address of the topmost one. It was written very large and clear.

"A. B. Majeau."

"Le Roi du Suede."

"Stockholm."

I did not know very much French, but I had enough to make that out. That sort of eagle was this which had been late our humble nest!

CHAPTER VII.

The servant, Peol Teller, who would weary me, and I am sure that it would weary you also. I came to attempt to tell you how much I mix them up sometimes. Yes, I have seen much of war. But there is a man out yonder. Maybe he is the one who your father said would carry my letters to the post."

"Yes, he is farmer Whitehead's man. Shall I give them to him?"

"Well, he would be more careful of them if he had them from your hands." So I took them from his pocket, and gave them over to me. I hurried out with them, and as I did so my eyes fell upon the address of the topmost one. It was written very large and clear.

"A. B. Majeau."

"If the wind were not from the east," said I, "but there is water enough for a forty-gun frigate right up within musket range. Grant your boats with their launchers, deploy them behind these sand-hills, then back with the launchers for more, and a stream of grape over their heads from the frigate. It could be done! It could be done! His muskets were right up close, like a cat's than ever, and I could see by the flash of his eyes that he was carried away by his dream."

"You forget that our soldiers would be upon the beach," said I indignantly. "To, to, to!" he cried. "Of course, it takes two sides to make a battle. Let us see now! Let us work it out! What could you get together? Shall we say twenty—thirty thousand? A few regiments of good troops. The rest, non!—conscripts, bourgeois with arms, how do you call them—volunteers."

"Brave men!" I shouted. "Oh, yes, very brave men, but imbecile; ah, mon Dieu, it is incredible how imbecile they would be. Not they alone, I mean, but all young troops. War must be learned, my young friend, just the same as the forming of ships."

"To, to, to!" said I, not to be outwitted by a foreigner. "If we had thirty thousand men on the line of the hill, yonder you would come to be very glad that you had your boats behind you."

Sometimes, when he talked, I thought he was joking, and at other times it was not quite so easy to say. I will remember one evening that summer when he was sitting in the kitchen with my father, Jim, and me, after the women had gone to bed, he began about Scotland and its relation to England."

"You used to have your own king, and your own laws made at Edinburgh," said he; "does it not fill you with rage and despair when you think that it all comes to you from London now?"

Jim took his pipe out of his mouth. "It was, we who put our king over the English, so if there's any rage it should have been over yonder," said he.

This was clearly news to the stranger, and it silenced him for the moment. "Well, but your laws are made down there, and surely that is not good," he said at last.

"No; it would be well to have a parliament back in Edinburgh," said my father; "but I am kept so busy with the sheep that I have little enough time to think of such things."

"It is for fine young men like you to think of it," said De Lapp. "When a country is injured it is to its young men that it looks to avenge it."

"Kye, the English take too much upon themselves sometimes," said Jim. "Well, if there are many of that way of thinking about, why should we not form them into battalions and march them upon London?" cried De Lapp.

"That would be a rare little picnic," said I, laughing; "and who would lead us?"

Hypo-Cod Is Wonderful Medicine for Giving a Man New "Pop."

"I suffered from indigestion and loss of appetite and I got so I could hardly stand to look at food without being nauseated. My nerves were on edge and I surely was on the down-grade, when I started taking Carlo's Hypo-Cod. It is wonderful medicine. I soon got back my appetite. Began gaining in weight and strength and sleep good every night. It is exactly what a person needs if troubled with their stomach, nerves and general system. It builds you right up to vigorous health according to my experience with it," declared Paul Benshoff, E. P. D. No. 1, Johnstown, Pa.

Instead of attempting to do a full day's work with the system in a depleted, nervous, exhausted condition, drop in at the drug store like thousands of others are doing and put your system into vigorous, robust shape again.

Carlo's Hypo-Cod is said to be the most modern and powerful reconstructive tonic made by chemists, druggists and experts. Thousands of users endorse it. Each bottle bears the name of the nationally known Carlo Chemical Co., which assures you of quality in medicine. Read the formula on a bottle at your druggist today. Take home a bottle.

FINISHED STEEL PRICES SOFTENING AT MORE RAPID RATE

Automobile Price Cuts Have No Connection With the Steel Market;
Hull Conditions Unimproved.

Special to The Weekly Courier

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The American
Metal Market and Daily Iron & Steel Report will review the steel and iron
trade tomorrow as follows:

Finished steel prices among the independents are softening at a somewhat more rapid rate than was expected, considering what remains the fact that order books in general are quite well filled. Shapes have been done at 3.00c when for months 3.10c
had been considered the minimum, while in plates 3.25c is the price that is out to get business instead of being the minimum. Buying has declined that the tonnage booked by the United States Steel Corporation make a much larger percentage of the total business done than formerly. The corporation's prices remain at 2.45c for shapes and 2.65c for plates.

The list of automobiles on which price reductions are announced has been growing rapidly, and it is now made plain, as was to be expected, that there is no connection with a steel market. The automobile makers are not offering orders to the steel

trade of such tonnage as would furnish any basis whatever for negotiating as to what price should be made.
Rail transportation conditions as they apply to the iron and steel industry have certainly not improved during the past week and on the whole
may be regarded as having grown more unsatisfactory. Some of the pipe mills are shipping less than they produce and thus are accumulating tinkling goods when the steel industry generally had been reducing its stocks for about two months. Fears are entertained that the first wintry weather will make railroad conditions much worse.

The pig iron market is not addressing itself with any vigor to the necessary task of finding new and lower price levels upon which trading can go on. There is not enough inquiry to develop what furnace really would do, and practically the whole list of pig iron prices, based on transactions
some time ago, may now be regarded as nominal.

Steel production is very well maintained and output this month may break the previous record, which was made in October, 1918. In occasional instances production has been reduced slightly.

Good Clothes Are an Investment in Good Appearance

O! Children, Read This! A LETTER FROM SANTA

October 1, 1920.
Christmas Land, N. Y.

Dear Boys and Girls:—
How have you been behaving since last
New Year? Have you been good? I have been so busy getting 'heaps of games and dolls and all sorts of things ready for 'Tisland—at the Point of the Straits,' Wright-Metzler Company, that I am 'way behind in my correspondence, but now the Sun has said 'Goodbye' and started south and all the little birds who tell me when you are had have gone along—SO—

"Better mind your P's and Q's
And do what you are told.
Don't ever 'sass' your mother, dear.
But always be polite and kind,
Say 'thank you,' 'also, 'please';
Help all you can, the Baby mind
And NEVER, NEVER TEASE.
And if the birds' reports are good
And say you're growing better,
Just watch this space, some day you'll
And,
I've sent another letter."

Yours affectionately, SANTA.

BITUMINOUS COAL CLOSER 12,900,000 TONS WEEKLY MARK

Total For Year to Date $1,000,000

Tons Ahead of Same Period

In the Preceding Year.

According to the report of the United States Geological Survey the week of September 26 was marked by an increase in the production of bituminous coal and a general resumption of work in the anthracite region. The total output of soft coal, including lignite and coal coked, is estimated at 12,917,000 net tons. Unless later revised downward this figure will stand at the largest production in any week since last January, not excepting the second week of August, which benefitted by the cars accumulated during the daymen's strike.

The rate per working day was 1-999,000 tons, the highest with one exception since last January, the exception being the five-day week of Labor Day.

Production during the first 228
working days of the last four years
has been as follows, in net tons:

1917 406,178,000
1918 485,934,000
1919 542,276,000
1920 582,747,000

The year 1920 is thus about thirteen and a half million tons behind 1917,
and a little over forty-four million tons behind 1919, but is fifty-one and a half million tons ahead of 1915.

Conservative men don't want clothes that dominate their personality, but clothes that are expressive of character and success.

Such clothes give more than an admirable fit—are more than all-wool, late style and fine tailoring. They are all that and, in addition, are the evidence of the wearer's good taste, thrift, knowledge of what's what and standing in the world of business and of many men.

Hirsch, Wickwire, Society Brand and Michaels Stern Clothes

are visible proof of all the qualities in clothes and manhood that the world most admires and we are proud to sell them here, exclusively for this territory. And to finest quality, most perfect tailoring and latest style, we add conservative pricing fairly computed on cost and giving true values unapproachable elsewhere.

els that are even more graceful draping of the wraps, so lovely this season, being especially suited to full formed figures.

Serge, tricotine, duvet de laine and velvete

Straight Lines and Draped Effects in Stylish Stout Dresses particular feature, soft crepe satin, crepe de chine and charmeuse as well as woolen serge and tricotine dresses resort to other devices for producing an atmosphere of slenderness. Brown, navy and black are the principal colors in these handsome afternoon and street toilettes all moderately priced.
